Hi James,

Just letting you know that I was able to pick the unit up from Audio-One last Friday thanks for the quick shipping!!!

After listening to them for only a few minutes I put my Trafomatic up for sale. It was really no contest. They sound fantastic with all the headphones I have on hand and I cannot wait to hear them balanced with my Fostex th900 when it gets back from modding.

Bryston really has done a great job with this product; nice to see a Canadian company showing others how it should be done.

Congratulations!

Brian
