MEMO: To All Briston Customers

SUBJECT: SoundStage - Product of the Year Awards for 2013

Recipients of the SoundStage! Network’s Product of the Year Awards for 2013 are chosen from all products reviewed this past year. Here are the winners of the 2013 SoundStage! Network Product of the Year awards, each with a link to the original.

Outstanding Performance: Integrated Amplifiers!

Bryston B135 SST2 Bryston B135 SST2 integrated amplifier:

The B135 SST2 could also have won this year’s Exceptional Value award – given its price/performance ratio!

Philip Beaudette, who has probably reviewed more integrated amplifiers than anyone else on our staff, said this about it in his SoundStage! Hi-Fi review: “You’ll have to spend significantly more to improve on the B135’s sound, and even so, those improvements are likely to be small.” Since then, he’s bought one to use as a reference. So simply saying that the B135 SST2 is good for the price doesn’t do this exceptional integrated amplifier justice -- its high level of performance qualifies the B135 SST2 to win the 2013 Outstanding Performance: Integrated Amplifiers award.
